Spartanburg Court House, Salesdays in May and June, also at said Court House, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday the 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th days of June. The Village Tax will be received any time of the last week collecting, and if any country returns should not be made and paid, they will be received Saturday in July, they can be made and Taxes paid on that day, at which time the Books must certainly close. And all Tax payers who fail to return and pay their Taxes by that time, will be double taxed, and those who make their returns and fail to pay by that time will be issued against by single Tax Executions, and those double taxed, by double Tax Executions. Every Tax payer will be expected to be prompt in making their returns and paying their taxes, and those in the country are hereby earnestly solicited to turn out at their nearest precincts, as it will be impossible to wait on them at the Court House on public days. I expect to attend at the different places at as early an hour as possible, as collecting and assessing will be a tedious process. Every Tax payer will be expected to be prepared to give the precise number of acres of land—the amount of lots in town—the number of males between the ages of twenty one and sixty years—the amount of professional income—the amount of commissions received by Brokers, Vendue Masters and Commission Merchants—the number of dogs of every kind and description they had in the State on the 1st day of January last or brought in the State up to the time of paying Taxes—the amount of all premiums taken in the State by Agencies of Insurance Companies—the amount of sales of goods wares and merchandise, embracing all articles of trade for sale, barter or exchange. (The products of this State and the unmanufactured products of any of the United States or Territories thereof excepted) which any person may have made from the 1st day of May, 1865, to the 1st of January, 1866, value of all articles manufactured in this State for sale, barter or exchange, amount of all spirituous liquors manufactured in this State, for barter or exchange—and the value of all spirituous liquors brought into this State for sale, barter or exchange—All custom on hand on the 1st October last, the crop of 1865 excluded, and the amount of sales of cotton made from the 1st of May last, to the 1st of October last, &c. &c. All freed men as well as white men between the ages of 21 and 60 years of age are required to make their returns and pay their Taxes. All returns to be made on oath, either by the owner of property or their agents making their returns, as no return can be taken only according to law.
R. C. POOLE, Assessor, and Tax Collector.
